

The Festival of Whales

Join Mark Carwardine and Wildlife Worldwide on a once-in-a-lifetime expedition to Baja California

“ Grey whales are widely regarded as the friendliest of all the world’s whales: it’s often hard to tell who is supposed to be watching whom. Spending quality time with them is arguably one of the greatest wildlife experiences on earth - a blur of leaping, laughing, spouting, splashing, stroking, playing and patting. ”

Mark Carwardine

WILDLIFE
WORLDWIDE
TRAVEL | EXPERIENCE | CONSERVE

sales@wildlifeworldwide.com
0845 130 6982
www.wildlifeworldwide.com

WILDLIFE

WORLDWIDE
TRAVEL | EXPERIENCE | CONSERVE

Grey whales have been migrating to San Ignacio Lagoon for thousands of generations in order to mate and calve in the warm, shallow waters. This behaviour affords visitors a unique opportunity to witness the splendour of these majestic giants, as mothers with new-born calves approach boats to show off their babies. Join zoologist, conservationist, award-winning writer and TV and radio presenter Mark Carwardine to see this incredible wildlife event first hand.

- ▶ Day 1 Depart London for San Diego
- ▶ Day 2 Fly to San Ignacio on a privately chartered aircraft and drive to Campo Cortez Eco-lodge where we spend the next six nights
- ▶ Day 3-7 Our days will be spent enjoying spectacular whale-watching and wildlife-viewing in the company of naturalist guides and a programme of exciting and informative lectures and presentations by Mark Carwardine
- ▶ Day 8 Return to the UK, via San Diego

Departs:

20 Feb 2014 and 26 Feb 2014

Trip cost:

£3,095 per person (land only) based on twin sharing accommodation

£395 per person single supplement

Flights package from £795 per person

(incl. international flights from the UK to San Diego and associated airport taxes)

The Festival of Whales

sales@wildlifeworldwide.com

0845 130 6982

www.wildlifeworldwide.com