WHAT WE'LL DO ON THE DAY

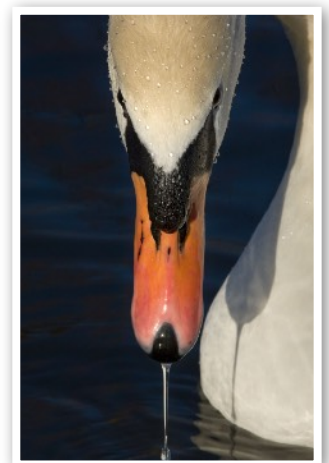

The day will consist of a variety of lectures, workshops and practical sessions. Mark will give you lots of professional tips and tricks – and will answer questions on anything you like (from camera settings to how to get your pictures published) – during informal sessions in the presentation room and practical sessions outside.

There are three main objectives:

- to help you improve your wildlife photography skills
- to inspire you with lots of thoughts, suggestions and ideas
- to have lots of fun!

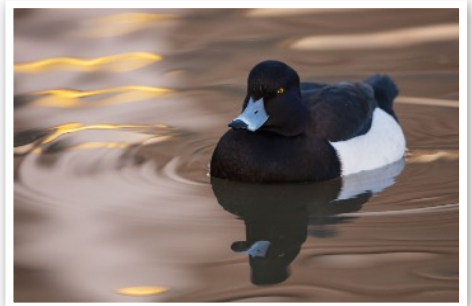

ITINERARY

09.30 – 10.00	Registration and coffee.
10.00 – 10.30	Pictures I like... and pictures I don't – Mark will show some of his recent photographs and discuss what makes a good wildlife image.
10.30 – 11.30	Getting the most out of your camera: basic camera settings.
11.30 – 12.30	Top tips to improve your creative wildlife photography.

ABOUT MARK

Mark (who is Vice President of Wildfowl & Wetlands Trust), has been taking wildlife photographs professionally for more than 25 years and has had his images published in an enormous range of publications around the world (mainly through Getty Images, Minden Pictures and Nature Picture Library). He was Chairman of the Judging Panel of the prestigious Wildlife Photographer of the Year competition, for seven years (2005-2011). He was also selected as one of The World's 40 Most Influential Nature Photographers in Outdoor Photography magazine and was one of 58 European nature photographers chosen in 2008 to contribute to Wild Wonders of Europe. And he wrote the monthly four-page Photo Masterclass in BBC Wildlife magazine, which ran for two years and was later turned into a book.
